

I don't think the FCC should override any states Telephone Privacy Action. I have not received the bothersome phone calls since I was placed on the list as I did before I asked to be put on this list. Thank you very much.